

URSULA THE WITCH

Mojiceja Podgorsek

Ursula the witch

Dasa Simcic

Full-colour illustrations

32 pages, 230 x 280 mm

Hardcover

Subject: Shifting responsibility to someone else

A witch named Ursula lives in the forest where she performs her magic. When her magic tricks go badly, she is known to become very angry.

Moral: Throughout the story the reader realizes that we are responsible for our own mistakes.

It is much more fun to learn from the mistakes that other make than the ones you make.
(S.J.)

TINA AND TOM

Tina and Tom are peers and neighbours, who play on different sides of the same fence because of their social differences. But then one day, Tina doesn't come out to play anymore ...

Moral: It's not important the status you possess, all that matters is the greatness you express.

Mojiceja Podgorsek
Tina and Tom

Nina Meglic

Full-colour illustrations

32 pages, 230 x 280 mm

Hardcover

Subject: Social differences

Whoever wears the shoes of love does not have to worry about walking around the world barefoot.

(M.L.)

HOW CHOCOLATE CAME TO BE

Mojiceja Podgorsek
How chocolate came to be
Maja Lubi

Full-colour illustrations
32 pages, 230 x 280 mm
Hardcover
Subject: Being different

Once upon a time a little bee named Anna flew in the bee kingdom. Anna had a big secret, which she kept hidden until the day when she was preparing a beverage for the Queen bee.

Inside the picture book you can also find a recipe on how to make chocolate.

Moral: This picture book encourages a child not to be afraid of being different, because being different can offer many unexpected benefits.

This story represents a wonderful journey into the boundless world of making big and small wishes come true.
(M.P.)

MONKEY AND HER STORY

Lorena Moreti
Monkey and her story

Andreja Gregoric

Full-colour illustrations

32 pages, 230 x 280 mm

Hardcover

Subject: Selfishness

This is a story about a monkey who is left without a tree, because she didn't want to share it with anybody.

Moral: The story educates children that it is perfectly safe to share. If they are overly attached to something, they can lose the thing they love the most.

Those who cling to things are bound to lose them sooner or later.
(P.M.)

THE FOX TALE

A sly fox Lena cleverly tricks her friends to assume a very important position in the forest council. But one day her slyness leaves her in the lurch.

Moral: This story tells the reader that it is not worth to look for shortcuts at the expense of others, in order to reach your own success faster.

Picture book, containing a partial pictography, is suitable for all children, but especially for those who are facing a transition from upper-case to lower-case letters.

Mojiceja Podgorsek
The fox tale

Ajda Erznosnik

Full-colour illustrations
32 pages, 230 x 280 mm
Hardcover
Subject: Self-interest

Friendships are the bonds that weave us a wonderfully colourful, soft, and warm blanket of memories, laughter, and love, and with which we cover ourselves when we walk alone on unfamiliar and steep paths of life.
(P.M.)

GOOSE BETTY

Mojiceja Podgorsek
Goose Betty
 Erika Omerzel Vujic
 Full-colour illustrations
 32 pages, 230 x 280 mm
 Hardcover
 Subject: Admitting you have a problem

Goose Betty does not want to accept the fact that she needs glasses, but because her bad vision hinders her in everyday work and games, she reluctantly agrees to wear them. It turns out that the world is completely different with her glasses on.

Moral: Admitting you have a problem is the first step in fixing it.

Those who stay out of trouble, see the world in a different way. But they never see it as it truly is.
 (M.P.)

SEAMSTRESS ABBY

Karen Soklic

Seamstress Abby

Tina Dobrajc

Full-colour illustrations

32 pages, 230 x 280 mm

Hardcover

Subject: Perseverance and following your dreams

Abby goes to the city, where she opens her first sewing salon. She gets visits from Fear, Troubles, and Doubt, which try to make Abby doubt herself and her work. But instead of giving up, Abby remembers the advice of her family, and this helps her to overcome difficult times.

Moral: The story shows how obstacles can always be found on the way to the fulfillment of one's dreams, but we can overcome them with perseverance, courage, and confidence in ourselves.

Brave people always find a way that leads to the fulfillment of their wishes.
(J.S.)

JOURNEY OF A SMALL PLASTIC BAG

Mojiceja Podgorsek
Journey of a small plastic bag
 Dasa Simcic
 Full-colour illustrations
 32 pages, 230 x 280 mm
 Hardcover
 Subject: Excessive use of plastic bags

*Even the smallest decisions affect the environment in which we live.
 (M.L.)*

Little plastic bag encounters many problems at her birth. She quickly forgets about them after she is brought to the shop where she feels great. Her long journey begins when a family uses her to put fruit in her.

Moral: The story educates the reader that the excessive use of plastic bags greatly burdens the environment in which we live. It also offers a solution on how each one of us can be a part of solving this problem.

HOW PIZZA TURNED INTO A POO

Mojiceja Podgorsek

How pizza turned into a poo

Uros Hrovat

Full-colour illustrations

32 pages, 230 x 280 mm

Hardcover

Subject: Human digestion

Kate enthusiastically embarks on a delicious pizza that her mother made. While eating, many machines in her body start to work. They carefully process each and every morsel and forward it to different parts of the body.

Moral: The story wants to show the children in a friendly and understandable way what happens with food after we eat it.

We are healthy when our body easily processes food and nourishes all living cells.
(L.M.)

THAT HAZELNUT IS MINE!

A squirrel and a hedgehog fight over a hazelnut. But where two fight over a thing, it is the third one that gets everything.

Moral: Children learn from the story that problems cannot be solved by mutual accusations.

Mojiceja Podgorsek
That hazelnut is mine!

Peter Gaber

Full-colour illustrations
32 pages, 230 x 280 mm

Hardcover

Subject: Arguing and problem solving

*In every argument there is also wisdom that is needed for its solution.
